

Storms Leave Devastation on West Coast

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — A howling storm with wind gusting to more than 100 miles an hour left at least 26 persons dead and a broad band of devastation along the West Coast today.

That made the two-day toll of 35 killed by successive storms, with 13 dead, 11 in California, 8 in Washington and 3 in British Columbia.

A National Guard unit and all available police were on duty in the Portland area to curb looting, which began after the wind smashed hundreds of store windows Friday.

Portland was virtually paralyzed. Most power and telephone lines were broken by winds that sent signboards sailing, knocked down thousands of trees, tore the roofs off scores of buildings and blew in countless windows.

The city sprawled in darkness Friday night, and residents huddled in their homes, fearful of flying debris outside.

It was the same along the Oregon coast and in a number of Oregon communities up the Willamette Valley in western Oregon.

The storm was felt from northern California to British Columbia but Oregon caught the worst of it.

"It was probably the biggest disaster that Oregon ever had," said Gov. Mark Hatfield, who declared a state of emergency and alerted the National Guard. Some guard units went on active duty in the Willamette Valley. Hatfield said he might decide later today whether to ask President Kennedy for disaster aid.

The worst was over. Winds were diminishing and the Weather Bureau said winds of only 25 to 30 miles an hour were expected on the coast today.

Oregon Public Utility Commissioner Jonel Hill estimated it will take at least four days to repair utility lines.

A fire broke out in Junction City, Ore., about 100 miles south of Portland, and two square blocks were leveled. Damage was estimated at $400,000.

In Astoria, at the mouth of the Columbia River—where the storm apparently centered—a fish cannery was flattened.

The peak force of the wind at Portland was not measured. Power lines were knocked out at the Weather Bureau before the height of the storm. Wind-measuring equipment registered 80 miles an hour before going out of operation. Experienced weather observers estimated the gusts at well over 100 m.p.h.

They were measured at 120 m.p.h. at a station on the northern Oregon coast. Mt. Tamalpais in California, just north of San Francisco, registered 121 m.p.h.

Hundreds of streets were blocked by toppled trees. U.S. 101, a major north-south highway, was blocked by downed redwood trees between Eureka and Crescent City, Calif.

The Pacific Northwest Bell Telephone Co. said its repair bills alone will mount to $400,000 or more.

Shipping disasters were avoided, although at one time there were boats adrift at Seattle, Portland and a number of smaller ports.

Yerger's Homecoming will be Friday, October 19, 1962. Jones High School of North Little Rock will be the visiting team.

The Queen drive will be conducted differently this year. Instead of asking the local businesses to make out-right donations, they will be asked to buy tickets to the game. Tickets are $1.00 each and we are asking that you buy one for each of your employees.

This will be the only solicitations by the school this term, so please help in this drive. We also invite you to come out and see the game.

The classes are in competition and the Homecoming Queens will be selected on the basis of the largest number of tickets sold. This money is used to finance our athletic program. Will V. Rutherford, Principal.

British Will Keep Sending Cuba Goods

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON (AP) — Britain waded today she would take a serious view of any attacks on her Cuba-bound shipping by the Cuban exile organization known as Alpha 66.

The Foreign Office also disclosed that the U.S. State Department has been approached—presumably to help explain last month's attack by Alpha 66 on a British vessel in a Cuban port.

The British have not said so officially but privately assert that Alpha 66 operates from U.S. territory using largely U.S. equipment.

In that sense London takes the view that the American administration could be held at least partly responsible for any illegal activities by the exile group.

Alpha 66, led by Antonio Veciana from a Puerto Rican headquarters announced Thursday it was declaring war on all merchant ships carrying supplies to Fidel Castro's Cuba. Earlier this week the organization claimed to have carried out a commando raid on a Cuban port.

If British merchantmen on the Cuba run had to go through a gauntlet of attacks by Alpha 66 raiders, there is little doubt the government would be pressed to provide naval protection.

Order U.S. to Answer Questions

MONROE, La. (AP) — A federal judge has ordered U. S. Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy and his top civil rights aides to prepare to answer questions of a Louisiana attorney Nov. 1 in Washington concerning southern voting cases.

U.S. Dist. Judge Ben C. Dawkins Jr. issued the order Thursday at the request of Atty. William E. Sharr. He gave Sharr permission in April to take a deposition from Kennedy, but Sharr said Kennedy had been uncooperative in setting a date.

It was believed this was the first time the attorney general has been ordered to give a deposition in a civil rights action.

Barnett Faces $10,000 Daily Fine; Arrest

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Final action in contempt proceedings against Mississippi Gov. Ross Barnett in the University of Mississippi desegregation case has been delayed until next week by a federal appeals court.

Barnett faces possible arrest and a $10,000 daily fine.

An attorney for Barnett started the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals Friday when he said he had not been authorized to say 10 days ago that Barnett would comply absolutely with all orders of the court.

Attorney Charles Clark said Barnett would comply "insofar as he is physically able." He said Barnett would decide himself when he could comply with the orders.

Clark contended the court had misinterpreted his language.

Judge Richard T. Rives of Montgomery, Ala., who had been present at the previous hearing, commented:

"We have indeed entered Alice in Wonderland where language doesn't mean what it says."

The court delayed action in the contempt case pending a decision on legal questions raised by the Justice Department's request for an injunction to prevent Mississippi officials from interfering with the position of James H. Meredith, a Negro, as an Ole Miss student.

It ordered written briefs be submitted by Monday.

While the court was deliberating, Meredith left the Oxford, Miss., campus by Border Patrol plane for the weekend. Presumably, he was headed for Memphis, Tenn., where he went last weekend to see his wife.

The campus remained quiet. In order to forestall more violence, however, Dean of Students L. L. Love ordered an immediate end to all demonstrations aimed at Meredith. He warned that violations will "bring immediate and drastic disciplinary action."

The New Orleans court hearing was the second at which Barnett and Johnson were to show they had purged themselves of contempt. They were convicted for their role in barring Meredith from Ole Miss. The court had said affirmative acts were necessary to show they had purged themselves.

Clark and Mississippi Atty. Gen. Joe Patterson contended that Barnett and Johnson were complying with orders now because Meredith is attending Ole Miss. Chief Judge Elbert Tuttle of Atlanta commented that Meredith was "barely" a student there.

Prescott's 3-Star General, John Calvin Munn, Is Second in Command of U.S. Marines

By MARY ANITA LASETER

His name is John, an ordinary name. His birthplace is Prescott, an ordinary town. But that is where the "ordinary" story ceases.

For 35 years John Calvin Munn has been a commissioned officer in the United States Marines and today, as a three-star general, he is second in command of all United States Marines.

A visit with his mother, Mrs. Cora M. Munn, at the Hempstead County Memorial Nursing Home sheds much light on Gen. Munn's life. The walls of her room are decorated with pictures of the general, and an attractive calendar shows the names of places outside the U. S. where he has served. They are the Bahamas, Tripoli, Chapultepec, Peking, Belleau Wood, Haiti, San Domingo, Nicaragua, Guadalcanal, Tarawa, the Marshalls, Marianas, Peleliu, Two Jimas, Okinawa, Korea and Lebanon.

But that is taking his story a little too fast. Upon graduation from Prescott High School in 1923, Munn received an appointment to the U. S. Naval Academy from Congressman Timpan Parks. He had his 17th birthday, he received his commission as a Marine Second Lieutenant.

His training did not end there, for he had further instruction at Annapolis and completed the Marine Officers' Basic Course at the Philadelphia Navy Yard. After a tour of duty in Nicaragua and at Quantico, Va., he was designated a student naval aviator and won his wings in Pensacola, Fla., in January, 1931.

Later that year, Gen. Munn went aboard the USS Saratoga to join a scouting squadron which was one of the first two Marine squadrons to serve aboard Navy carriers. For several years Gen. Munn served as Naval Attache and Naval Attache for Air at the American embassies in Columbia, Panama, Venezuela, Ecuador, and Peru.

After the bombing of Pearl Harbor, he began a series of meritorious assignments. He was in the first transport plane to arrive in Guadalcanal. With the 1st and 2nd Marine Aircraft Wings he served in the Pacific theater. From September, 1943, until February, 1945, he served in Washington as Assistant Head of the Aviation Planning Section, Headquarters, Commander-in-Chief, U. S. Fleet. When WW II ended, he was in the Pacific theater commanding Marine Aircraft Group 31.

During the Korean conflict, the General was Chief of Staff of the First Marine Aircraft Wing. He has also been head of the Marine Corps Air Station at El Toro, Calif., was Assistant Commanding General, Aircraft, Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic, and was Commanding General of the 2nd Marine Aircraft Wing at

Protestant Reaction to Council Meet

By MARY CAMPBELL

NEW YORK (AP)—Three of the eight American Protestant delegate-observers to the 2nd Vatican Council have commented on council prospects in response to an invitation from a weekly Catholic newspaper.

Protestant delegates attend the council, which opened Thursday, at the invitation of the Vatican, to observe the deliberations and report to their own religious communities.

"The Catholic Reporter, which had listed issues expected to come before the council and asked all eight delegate-observers for comment, published the three statements in full.

Concern with "a total disregard for moral standards everywhere" was expressed by Dr. Frederick C. Grant, one of three observers from the Anglican Communion. Dr. Grant added, "I believe the council will be—surely may be—one of the great turning points in world history."

Optimism also was expressed by Dr. J. H. Jackson, president of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., the largest all-Negro religious body in the world. "As a result of this conference I look forward to a greater fellowship and understanding between Protestants and Catholics the world over."

Dr. Jackson is the only Baptist delegate-observer at the council.

Dr. Albert C. Outler, professor at Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University, discussed the council's possible effects on the ecumenical movement and said, "No matter what does happen, the ecumenical situation is bound to be altered significantly thereafter—for better or for worse."

Dr. Outler went on, "Most Protestants understand by now, at least, that formally speaking, this council is a family affair within the Roman Catholic Church. We realize that its effect upon the relations between Rome and the rest of the Christian community is largely indirect."

"But no one rightly doubts that those effects will be deep and far-reaching. They might, quite possibly, be epoch-making."

"What the world cries out for is a spiritual and moral awakening," Dr. Grant said. "And I for one rejoice that the great Roman Catholic Church, the largest communion in Christendom, is probably about to take the lead in such a movement."

Tells of Lead to Cancer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Delegates to the Arkansas Academy of General Practice were told Thursday and denovous that causes respiratory infection in man will produce cancer when injected into a hamster.

Dr. Benard T. Gafinkel, professor of clinical medicine at Washington University, St. Louis, said the discovery was a lead in the fight to overcome the disease. Studies indicate it is only a matter of time until there will be proof that viruses cause some cancer in humans, he said.

Gafinkel said a virus has been isolated and shown to produce as many as 20 different kinds of tumors when injected into mice. He termed the virus polyoma.

Dear Helen: I feel great sympathy for the woman who wrote you about the mess she got into when she remarried in the hope of acquiring a good stepfather for her six children. I fell for that too, hook, line and sinker. I had the same number of children, three boys and three girls, the best youngsters anyone ever had, but by the time the four oldest got out to get married, I was glad to see them go. Don't ever think a stepfather is going to love his stepchildren, no matter what he promises before you marry him.

If ever there was a perfect man before we married, mine was one. But the day he began to taste the responsibility of fatherhood, it was a different story. I have never been allowed to correct my own two youngest children without a fight. Every pay day all I hear from him is how much money he could have if he didn't have all these bills for another man's children. We have no friends any more. He has beaten me quite a few times, left me over and over again. Suspicion is his middle name. He looks under beds, in closets and checks tire tracks on the chance I've had a secret lover. Bah! If I go to church, he accuses me of being soft on the preacher.

My advice to any woman with children who plans remarriage is to count ten, then don't jump. Even if the children's own father was no prize package, it will turn out that he is far better than his successor. —Miserable

Dear Miserable: The sad experience you've had may or may not be a lesson to others because women intent on finding a stepfather for their children sometimes blind themselves to the possibility that things may not work out as hoped. Often, of course, a stepfather will prove as good or better a parent than the real father, but only if he is free of all hidden hostility or resentment toward his predecessor, fully aware of his new responsibilities, and willing to shoulder them. A woman with children should consider a second marriage with extreme caution, and only after she has tested the prospective candidate's mettle by observing his conduct with her youngsters time and again.

Dear Helen: I'm 16 and have always listened to my mother. She holds that it cheapens a girl to chase boys. My girl friend chases boys, and guess who has all the boy friends, dates, and fun? She, not I. It seems that boys like girls who run after them. Do you agree? —Not-a-Boy-Chaser

Dear Not: You do well to listen to your mother. Boys who expect to be pursued are immature, shallow, and conceited; they make poor husbands. No man worthy of the name wants to be run after; traditionally the role of hunter is his, and he is proud to perform it. If, at present, you cannot find a boy who fills this bill, relax and have patience. Someone who does appreciate your standards is bound to turn up. You may miss a few dates at this age, but your girl friend may be the one to end up with the shop-worn reputation, and that never attracts the best of men.

Self-employed Bill Seen as Peace Move

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's action in signing a self-employed pension bill was widely interpreted today as a peace gesture to the doctors who opposed his program of health care for the elderly.

Kennedy has been depicted as reluctant to let the measure become law. It permits self-employed persons such as doctors and lawyers to set up tax-eased pensions for themselves and their employees.

The fact that the President wasn't very pleased with the bill seemed to be substantiated by his silence in signing it. The usual White House statement and ceremonies which accompany such actions were conspicuously missing.

Reports of the President's reluctance were so widespread that Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., sponsor of the bill, contributed his efforts toward keeping Congress in session so the measure could be pocket-vetted.

When Congress is meeting, a bill becomes law without the President's signature if he does not sign or veto it in 10 days. If Congress is in adjournment, a President can kill a measure simply by not acting on it in 10 days. Midnight Wednesday was the 10-day deadline for the self-employed bill.

Kennedy has been represented as being angry at the doctors who joined in the campaign that ended in Senate defeat of his proposal to finance health care for those over 65 through Social Security taxes.

He also obviously doesn't like the $15-million bite the self-employed pension plan will make in yearly Treasury revenues.

But sponsors of the measure had argued with him that giving the doctors something most of them want might help ease their opposition to his general program, if not to the health care item. And he was reminded that a lot of lawyers, farmers, barbers and small business men are self-employed and would like to have a tax break which would help them lay away something for a rainy day.

Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, one of the chief sponsors of the bill, said he thought Kennedy was caught in a set of circumstances in which he couldn't afford to veto the bill.

"The trouble was that while he was a senator, President Kennedy did make the statement that the bill had merit and that it should be enacted into law," Dirksen said.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, deputy Senate Democratic leader, said in a separate interview he is happy the President decided to sign it.

Humphrey, who voted for the bill, said Congress had given it such momentum by its overwhelming passage by both Houses in that he suspected it would have been enacted even if there had been a veto. It requires two-thirds approval of those voting in each house to override a veto.

Things a Columnist Pick Up

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Nero, the Roman emperor, spent up to $150,000 for roses alone at one of his famous feasts. But a guy like that probably goes around the palace after the banquet turning off lights to save money.

Toothsome rumor: It is said that a new pill to be on the market shortly will make brushing your teeth unnecessary. (You never really know freedom in life until you reach the age where you can mail your teeth to the dentist for his pain-free, semi-annual check-up.)

Speaking of dentists, the best known one in history was probably Zane Grey, who helped make the West meet the East. But when he was an unknown author first trying to peddle his cowboy stories, a publisher told him he had absolutely no talent for writing popular fiction.

Our girls go places. The U.S. department that knows about such things says that 55 per cent of the passports it issues go to the ladies, and 28 per cent are housewives. A woman's place is in the home—when she isn't going other places.

Our quotable notables: "A few people who achieve fame grow most of them well."—Woodrow Wilson.

Personal philanthropy: If you don't give at least 50 presents a year to other people, you're stingier than your average neighbor. What has more keys than a bank? A piano. It looks smooth and simple, but it has 7,500 parts—more than an automobile.

Odd legislation: I hear that trying to climb to a street light is illegal in Atlanta, Ga. (Our liberties are gnawed away one by one.)

Forgotten heroes: Victor Orville.

Things we hope we never have to climb to fix a burned-out light bulb: "The world's longest staircase is in the Aura power plant in Norway. Built of wood, it rises 2,450 feet and has 3,715 steps.

Tidbits: Female ankles are getting bigger. Some kangaroos live in trees. Some fish build nests. Only one in eight Americans snores—The other seven stay awake and listen.

It was Henry David Thoreau who observed, "The boy gathers materials for a temple, and then when he is 30 concludes to build a woodshed."

Testimony in Murder Trial

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Three witnesses testified Thursday they were members of a drinking party that preceded the death of James Franklin Emerson Jr., 48, May 9. Their testimony came in the trial of Oliver Roy Livingston, 57, a Little Rock plumber charged with murder in Emerson's death.

Clive Davis, Fred Warren and Ace Collins testified that they, Livingston and the victim were drinking at a party on the bank of Fourche Creek and they had taken turns firing a .22 caliber rifle.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Simmons and sheriff's stenographer Mrs. Everett Eason testified Livingston told them he shot Emerson because the victim had taken his (Livingston's) wife away from him 15 years ago.

Emerson was found dead from a single .22 caliber wound in the left temple.

The trial was recessed until 9:30 a.m. today.

Greek Battle

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Shots were fired as police fought pitched battles today with 1,000 construction workers demonstrating for a seven-hour day. About 50 persons were injured.

The fastidious East: Did you know that Hindu cooks are required to put on a fresh set of clothing whenever they enter their kitchens?

Thought For The Day

What is fame? The advantage of being known by people of whom you yourself know nothing, and for whom you care as little. Stanislaus said it.

"I like that attitude," the judge said. "But, you know, many men have tried to have their way with Stephen Pendergrass and William Ivey in the past, and they have failed. They'll say at my brother's funeral that he was a good man. He wasn't even a god boy; he'll meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday; he was a child of a wild time and a wild place. He and Ivey were both like that."

"You know, Torres was one of them too. We may never know when he was making ready for the celebration of the Church's 91st birthday, this is being sponsored by Bro. Mose Yeager and C. G. Carmichael."

Every Department of Lonoke is planning its own surprise on the 4th Sunday. Every Sunday afternoon some visiting church is dined at the church.

This Sunday the Mt. Calm Baptist Church of Minden, La., will be the special guest of Lonoke. Dr. C. L. Townsend is bringing a singing group from Louisiana.

Next Sunday Lonoke under the leadership of Dr. A. L. Scott will go en masse to Minden, La. Any one desiring to go with Lonoke on the third Sunday may do so by contacting Dr. Scott or by calling 3646 or 3344 or 3198 for specific details.

At Lonoke the Sunday school will now begin at 9 o'clock and the morning worship hour is set for 10 o'clock. Sunday morning all musical groups will be serving Carmichael and E. V. Scott, Misses Carolyn Lloyd and Eva Smith plus deacon Charlie English. Dr. Scott's subject at the ten o'clock hour will be "What A Mighty God We Serve". You are always welcome.

Calendar Of Events

The Christian Youth Fellowship of the BeBe Memorial C. M. E. Church will sponsor a "Pie Walk" in the basement of the church tonight beginning at 6 o'clock.

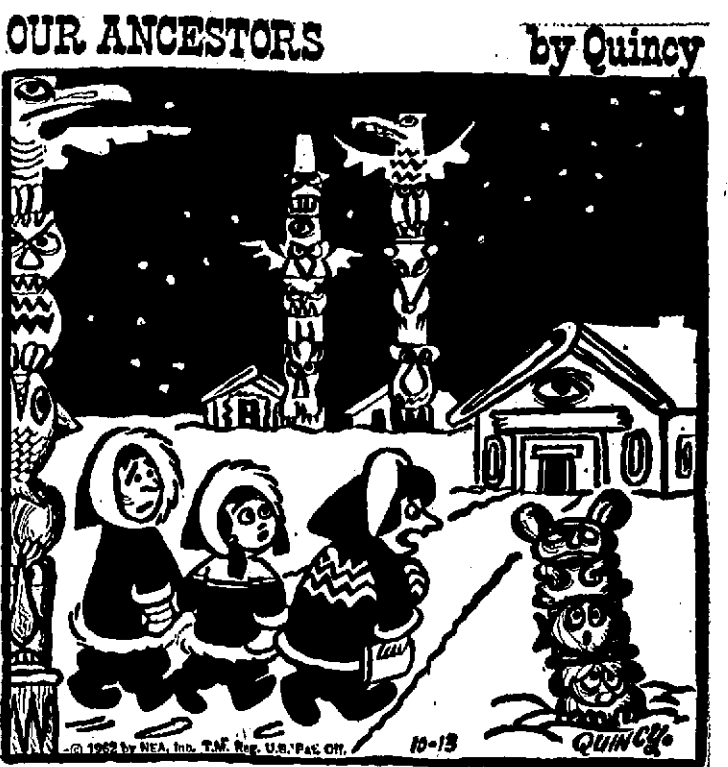

You are invited to attend. Miss Barbara Bennett, President; Mrs. Mattie Sanders, Supervisor; Rev. The Fourth and last Quarterly Conference will be held at the Bethel A. M. E. Church Sunday, October 14, and Monday night, October 15.

Rev. A. L. Harris, Presiding Elder of the Prescott District of the West Arkansas Conference, will preach at the 11 o'clock hour. The business session will be held Monday night at 7:30. Rev. R. N. Thomas, Pastor.

A Gospel Concert, featuring the Israelite Travelers of Denver, Colo., will be presented at the Howard County Training School, Toltette, Ark., Oct. 20, at 8 p.m.

Judge Pendergrass removed his spectacles and rubbed both his hands down across his face as if his eyes were tired.

"We have won, Youngblood," he said. "Sort of hard to realize, isn't it? We won against pretty good odds. But the victory is bitter to me. Very bitter. It makes me feel like Brutus might have felt after he helped kill Julius in TH AR OD MB hm rfo d . Caesar. He must have wondered whether he killed a man who was really bigger than himself."

He paused and in the pause, Deputy Youngblood said, "I don't look at it that way, sir. I don't see how we could have done anything different."

The judge looked up at him and sighed. "No, that's a fact," he replied. "I've been running in circles in my thinking tonight and always I come back to that conclusion. We couldn't have done anything different. Maybe if I'd been a smarter man, maybe I could have seen my brother's part in this thing, and I could have disqualified myself. But that wouldn't have been any answer. In fact, I would never have been satisfied with any results much different from what we saw today. We hanged William Ivey in broad daylight on the appointed day and in the county where he committed his crime. And my brother—he paid his debt as easily as even I could have wished."

"Well, Judge," the deputy said, "it seems to me like we were lucky, but we were right and we fought them pretty hard, too. We day, Oct. 15, at 7:30 p.m. with will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Alpha Delta Chapter of Delta gave the invocation. Mrs. Ross gave; president Mrs. Alice Roach; group leader, Mrs. Ross Gleghorn; Mrs. Edna Britt and Mrs. Reba relatives and friends.

hanged Ivey in broad daylight because that's the way you said it was going to be."

They'll say at my brother's funeral that he was a good man. He wasn't even a god boy; he'll meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday; he was a child of a wild time and a wild place. Landowners File Suit in Sebastian

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Sebastian County landowners have filed a suit attacking the constitutionality of a 1953 law allowing the state Highway Commission to secure rights-of-way on demand.

Act 419 of 1953 provides that the commission may appraise a tract of land, make a deposit on it together with a declaration of taking and move onto the land.

Thomas Harper of Fort Smith, attorney representing the owners of land in the route of the proposed Fort Smith Interstate Spur, argues in the suit that the constitution provides that the commission must acquire disputed land through the county courts.

Clay Robinson, Highway Commission attorney, said this was the manner in which land was acquired prior to 1953. He said the present procedure has been held up in courts, though Act 419 has not been directly attacked.

Robinson said unless the dispute is decided before the Nov. 20 meeting of the commission the Fort Smith Spur project will likely be withdrawn from bid openings.

He also said that an adverse ruling could bring to a halt the state's current multi-million dollar land acquisition program.

Bobcats Lose to Fairview By 7-0 Score

By VINCE FOSTER

With a tight defense and a fourth quarter score the Fairview Cardinals handed the Bobcats their second straight loss in a very disappointing Homecoming game.

The Cats started out on fire and on Roy Wray's 34 yard scamper, they traveled to the Fairview eight. Here the ball was knocked loose from David Porterfield and the Cards recovered. From there they drove 75 yards to the Bobcats' 17, where they missed a field goal attempt. Midway in the second quarter the Cats made their only other threat as they rolled to the Fairview 19, but the Cats lost the ball on downs there.

The Bobcats and the Cards were even on yards rushing at the half with 91 yards each, but the second half proved to be a nightmare as the locals were held to 12 yards in that entire half. The third quarter was about even, but midway in the fourth, Cardinal Ted intercepted a McLarty aerial at Hope's 47, which led to the lone score of the game. In a goal line defense at the 24, the Cats yielded to FB Stanley Watson who sprinted his way the remaining yardage for the score. QB Bobby Rush made the extra point to give Fairview their 7-0 edge. With Hope QB Mack McLarty suffering from a hurt hand, the Cats couldn't muster a final touchdown threat, and lost the game and probably the district championship chance, 7-0.

Highlights in Today's History

Today's highlight in history:

On this day in 1857, financial panic began when banks in New York and Boston suspended payments.

On this day—

In 1860, the first aerial photograph in America was taken when a picture of Boston was made from a captive balloon.

In 1928, telephone service between the United States and Spain was inaugurated.

In 1937, Nazi Germany promised to respect Belgium's independence.

In 1960, the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the New York Yankees four games to three to win the World Series.

Ten years ago, Pakistan's ruling political party, the Muslim League, demanded prompt United Nations Security Council action on the Kashmir dispute.

Five years ago, India and Japan called for suspension of nuclear tests as the first step toward disarmament and a ban on nuclear weapons.

One year ago, Syria resumed the seat in the United Nations that it held before merging with Egypt under the banner of the United Arab Republic.

Asks Permit to Issue Stock

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Mayville Telephone Co. asked the Arkansas Public Service Commission today to authorize it issued shares of its stock to the Southwest City Telephone Co. of Southwest City, Mo.

The par value of the common stock is $100 per share. The stock would be in payment of $9,000 advanced to Mayville by Southwest for purchase of dial equipment.

Unbeaten Tech Going for Five

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Unbeaten Arkansas State College tries to stretch its record to 4-0 Saturday night when it takes on Mississippi College from Clinton, Miss.

The Indians have beaten South Dakota State, Florence, Ala., and St. Mary of Dodge City, Kan., in their first three outings.

The Mississippi College Choctaws are 3-1 with victories over Austin, Tex., 12-6, the University of Mexico 22-6 and Henderson State 14-0, and a 7-0 loss to Ouachita.

Arkansas State will be without the services of Mitchell Hale, who pulled some ligaments in his right arm in practice Wednesday. End Hassell McCain received a severe cut on his arm in last week's game with St. Mary and is a doubtful starter.

Arkansas State is a heavy favorite but Indian assistant Coach Wayne Armstrong, who scouted the Choctaws twice, said their team speed could present the Tribe with a challenge.

No Riots in South Carolina

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP)—South Carolina's governor, Ernest F. Hollings, said today he does not expect any race riots over integration in his state.

Hollings, on a two-day trade promotion visit to Denmark, told a news conference that there have been no racial incidents in his state, apart from sit-ins and other demonstrations.

"And we won't have a Little Rock or an Oxford," he said, referring to integration troubles in Arkansas and Mississippi. "We believe in law and order, and there is a tremendous good will between colored and whites. There is no rabble-rousing, but there are professional groups coming in to raise discord."

Bids on Vehicles

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Purchasing Department asked for bids Wednesday on 94 standard sized V-8 automobiles and one pickup truck. Forty-four of the vehicles are for the Highway Department and 50 for State Police. Bids will be opened Oct. 14.

Health Dept. Praise

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dr. John T. Herron, Arkansas state health officer, received a commendation from the Public Health Service Wednesday for contributions in the field of Civil Defense health preparedness. Surgeon Gen. Luther L. Terry, who presented the award to Herron in a surprise ceremony, said it was the first such recognition bestowed by the Public Health Service.

Plain Talk

Here is Life's romance . . . a father and son in plain talk. We hear the father admonish his son — "You are building a life, a career. You need all the wisdom I have acquired through experience. Son, you should take along the Bible's blueprint for better living. Don't make the mistake some of your friends do . . . you need the church. You need the fellowship of church people to gain inspiration for conquering difficulties you must face. You must be cautious, honest and sincere. Your ambition must be worthy, your aim high, your heart pure. Quoting the Golden Rule is not enough, son — it must be lived. Finally, my boy, I hope you will regularly read Jeremiah 42:3 and keep faith with all of this plain talk."
